Zero Shah Rukh Khan Katrina Kaif resume shooting

Shah Rukh Khan and Katrina Kaif were spotted shooting for Zero at Mehmoood Studios in Mumbai today. The Aanand L Rai film, which also stars Anushka Sharma in a lead role, has been creating much buzz everywhere. After Katrina's bridal look for the film broke the internet, new pictures from the sets of Zero are now out. SRK will be playing the role of a dwarf in this much anticipated movie.

After taking a brief break from the shooting schedule of the film, Shah Rukh Khan and Katrina resumed shooting for Zero.

SRK actor looked ready to get back in action after spending quality time with his family in the past few days.

Recently, Shah Rukh said he is enjoying working on Zero as the process is making him feel as if he is "growing up very fast into a child". "I am loving and living making 'Zero' the film. Thanks @aanandlrai and the whole team for this. Only way to describe it is 'I am growing up very fast into a child... Very fast'," Shah Rukh tweeted.

Meanwhile, Katrina stole the show in a red bridal attire that looked just perfect on the gorgeous actress.

Earlier, SRK had appointed Katrina as his "media manager". "Katrina is having fun doing all this. I think Zero is technically and emotionally a difficult film, so it required that kind of individuals who can create fun atmosphere on the film set and that is what Katrina is doing. It is so nice of her and entire team to have this kind of atmosphere all around," he had written.

Zero is slated to be released on December 20.
