The new video shows a chain of wholesome moments from the daily lives of television viewers and how they resolve their differences only to watch The Kapil Sharma Show together. There is boss-employee duo, a woman and her servant, a dying patient and more characters that bond over the show. The video is quite different from all the previous promos for Kapilâ€™s other shows in tone. While the earlier ones use to be more humorous, this one attempts to pull at its audiencesâ€™ heartstrings. The promo ends with Kapilâ€™s picture and a message that says â€˜Jald hasaenge (Will make you laugh soon)â€™.
