Royal Institute of Music and Arts, in collaboration with Broadway Events and Productions, will stage â€™Mamma Retired Zathaâ€™™, a drama by Daiji Rang Mandir Artists on Thursday, September 19 at the British School Abu Dhabi from 07.30 pm onwards.

The drama is ready to create loads of entertainment as it has already witnessed houseful shows in Dubai.

â€™Mamma Retire Zathaâ€™™ is a full length critically acclaimed stage play, originally written in Marathi by Ashok Patole which has already seen more than 8000 shows. The Konkani play is directed by Dayan Dâ€™™Souza Mukamar, who has successfully directed number of plays in the past.

The drama is presented by Daiji Rang Mandir, a center of performing arts and cultural wing of Daiji Dubai. The play is enacted by seasoned and popular actors of UAE. â€™Mamma Retire Zathaâ€™™ is presented by Royal Music and Broadway Events after the houseful Konkani play â€™Vechogi Ravnchoâ€™™ at the same venue.

Grab your tickets at the earliest and show your love and support for the Konkani artists. Hurry up. The tickets are limited and are being sold rapidly.
