Udupi: A woman and her young son have been reported missing since Wednesday February 2.

Vidyalakshmi (39) and her son Anshul (6), residents of Shivalli, are the missing persons.

Vidyalakshmi's husband Praveenchandra has filed a complaint in this regard in Manipal police station.

The complaint states that on Wednesday at around 11 am, Vidyalakshmi had gone to Anshul's school to pick him up. However, they did not return home, nor did they go to any relative's or friend's house.

Vidyalakshmi is of medium built, with fair complexion, and speaks Kannada, Tulu, Hindi and English. Anshul is slim and knows Tulu and English. While Vidyalakshmi was dressed in jeans and top, Anshul was wearing a blue shirt at the time they went missing.

Those with any credible information about the missing mother and son are requested to contact Manipal police.
