

Moodbidri: 28 years old married women missing

06/02/2017 13:09 by admin

Shanthipriya D'Souza (28), sister of Arun D'Souza from Ranger Kody in Puchchamogaru village near Moodbidri has remained untraceable since January 26. She was residing with her brother Arun, and based on a complaint filed with him, the town police here have registered a case.

As per the complaint, Arun, on his return after visiting a shop on January 26, found that his sister was not at home. Shanthipriya had been married off to Sanoor Alwyn seven months ago. The police as well relatives of the woman have so far unable to get any clue why the lady went missing. Investigation is on.

The complainant said that Shanthipriya, whose complexion is dark, and whose height is 5'5" with normal build and long hair, was wearing Churidar on the day she went missing. She can converse in Konkani, Kannada and Tulu.