

Brussels bombers had planned new attack in France

10/04/2016 21:04 by admin

Brussels: Mohamed Abrini, the man arrested for links with the Paris and Brussels terror attacks, had planned to stage another attack in France, Belgian prosecutors said on Sunday.

Abrini, who was arrested in Brussels on Friday, also admitted to being the "man in the hat" seen with the bombers who attacked a Brussels airport, Xinhua cited Belgian prosecutors as saying.

Abrini was also wanted in connection with the November 13 Paris attacks that left at least 130 people killed and over 250 injured.

He is one of six men arrested on Friday. Four others have been charged with terror offences.

Â Â Â The attacks at Zaventem airport and a Metro station in Brussels left 34 people dead.

The Islamic State militant group has claimed responsibility for both of the attacks.

- IANS