Kabul: At least 40 people were killed and several others injured in n multiple blasts at a Shiite cultural centre and mosque in Kabul on Thursday, Afghanistan media reported.

"There were two explosions. We still do not know the target of the attack, but Afghan Voice Agency is in the area of the attack," interior ministry spokesman Najib Danish said.

The incident comes a day after a suicide bomber killed six civilians in an attack near an Afghan intelligence agency compound in the city. No terror outfit has claimed responsibility for the attack as of now.

More details are awaited.
