

'Stunning but scary': Watch this viral video of lions halting traffic at an African national park

13/01/2019 18:11 by admin

The footage shared on Facebook by "Lions Of Kruger Park And Sabi Sand", has gone viral with over two million views.

This safari tour for tourists visiting the Kruger National Park in South Africa turned into something incredible and scary at the same time after four lions marched down a road in the park and stalling their vehicles. In a video that is going viral on social media, the majestic beasts were seen taking a stroll down Sabi Sand Private Reserve area of the park, mesmerising not just tourists in the video but people around the world.

The footage shared on Facebook by "Lions Of Kruger Park And Sabi Sand", has gone viral with over two million views. Though most people were thrilled and amazed, several were shocked to see the wild animals in such proximity to the cars and humans. Describing it as "stunning but scary," many left comments on the video.

- TIE