Valentine's Day, also called Saint Valentine's Day or the Feast of Saint Valentine is named after the martyred Christian saint named Valentine. The celebrations take place to honour his sacrifice for he was the one who would help forbidden couples get married in ancient Rome. The date "14th of February" was adopted to celebrate Valentine's Day because as many as three saints named Saint Valentine died on this day. Valentine was the patron of love, young people, and happy marriages. Thanks to its portrayal in the popular culture, Valentine's Day has become a significant event in every part of the world.

In the run-up to Valentine's Day on February 14, there are seven events that couples love celebrating with much fun and enthusiasm. This period is called Valentine Week. These event days are based on every quintessential thing or emotion related to romance and love. Like you have days based on roses, chocolates, teddy bears, promises, hugs and kisses. The first day of Valentine Week is Rose Day, which is annually celebrated on February 7 and this year, it will fall on Thursday.
