Wishing you a very Happy Chocolate Day 2019.

Teddy Day 2019 - February 10 (Sunday)

After roses and chocolates, the third must-have item in your V-Day present is a soft toy. Teddy bears are absolute favourite in this season of love. And this why thereâ€™s a dedicated day for it â€“ Teddy Day. It is the fourth day of Valentine Week and falls on February 10 and in 2019, Teddy Day 2019 will be celebrated on Sunday.

Love should not be only professed materialistically, it must be nurtured. The fifth day of Valentine Week is celebrated as Promise Day and it falls on February 11. On this day, lovers make truthful promises to each other. They promise to be each otherâ€™s support system, being there for the other in thick and thin and loving unconditionally.
