Spanish model and TV presenter Tamara Gorro shared the photo to her 1.2 million followers.

VALENCIA defender Ezequiel Garay's wife send Instagram wild with a liking frenzy when she posted a stunning nude photo of herself.

Spanish model and TV presenter Tamara Gorro, 32, uploaded the image for her 1.2 million followers on the social media site.

The snap, captioned "I like it, posted", shows the stunning mother-of-two in a cornfield with her back to the camera looking out over the horizon.

And in no time her fans had shown their appreciation, with the picture receiving 63,000 likes and more than 700 comments.

The curvy Gorro is no stranger to baring all to her followers, writing last year that: "I stripped off because I wanted to. I stripped off because it does not hurt anyone.

"I stripped off because I am not different. I stripped off because I am free."

Gorro, who was named Miss Segovia in 2008, has been on television ever since appearing on a dating show in 2010.

The Spaniard married Garay in 2012 and has two children with the centre-back.

Garay won the Copa del Rey with Real Madrid in 2011 and won league titles with Benfica in Portugal and Zenit Petersburg in Russia before joining Valencia in 2016.
