Clutching on to the shower head, the Islander smiled into the camera.

Meanwhile, another showed the star displaying her best sultry pose as she leaned on the side of the bath.

This isn't the first time the glamorous star has posed for a racy shoot.

As well as her work with Page 3, India has also posed for a sex toy company Love Honey, in which she modelled a range of their most provocative clothing pieces.

In the villa, the Reading local caught the eye of both Ovie Soko and Chris Taylor before setting her sights on the basketballer for good.

The pair shared their first kiss shortly after her arrival on the dating show and went on to survive a brutal dumping, which saw Michael Griffiths and Francesca Allen leave.

Before going into the villa, she said: "I want to have a good time and I don't like falling out with people so hopefully I can be friends with the girls and gorgeous Ovie will still be single for me."
