A team of naked student vets flashed their bums for a naked photoshoot in the Scottish countryside. The student vets braved the elements to horse around in the name of charity for their 2020 naked calendar.

Ninety-four students from Edinburgh University's Royal Dick School of Veterinary Studies stripped off and posed in the nude with animals to raise cash for animal charity All4Paws.

Student Jara Mrdja, who organised the project, said: "Nude charity calendars have been a vet med tradition for a little while now.

"Several other veterinary schools also produce nude charity calendars."

The calendar is available to order here for Â£12.
