Jennifer Lopez showed off her famous butt in a black thong swimsuit as she did some paddleboarding on quite the tropical getaway.

JLo even tried her hand at some paddleboarding

The entertainer was spotted kicking back in Turks & Caicos as she took some time to hop on a board and work on her paddleboard skills.

However, it was her choice of swimsuit that turned heads as she sported a black one-piece that cut low in the back.

Aside from putting her butt on display, the Hustlers actress - who was also make-up free while rocking a bun - showed off some side-boob.

Before hitting the clear-blue water, JLo relaxed on the beach with a white tunic dress on.

She even took some selfies while out and about

The entertainer turned some heads with her latest outing

It should come as no surprise that JLo is still looking quite fit these days - she recently dropped jaws by sharing a photo while on the beach.

She captioned it: "Beach Bum," as fans couldn't help but respond with nothing but praise.

One wrote: "Perfection," while another added: "the real queen."

The actress works out to stay fit

While the megastar looks she is currently living it up, not seen with her is former baseball player Alex, who she was supposed to walk down the aisle with in 2020.

Unfortunately, due to the pandemic, plans have been put on pause for now.

JLo previously told Andy Cohen on his radio show in December: "It was really sad because we were supposed to get married in June and we had planned it all.

JLo was set to marry Alex Rodriguez in 2020 but the coronavirus pandemic put a pause on their plans

"So in March or April, we're looking down the pipe and we're going, 'This is maybe not going to happen.' Italy's the worst place in the world. And we were going to get married in Italy. I was like, 'OK, we got to cancel everything.'"

The pair will be blending their families as Jennifer has two kids, while Alex has two daughters

JLo - who performed on New Year's Eve - called the turn of events "disappointing," but said she has faith in "divine time."

She continued: "It just kind of gave us a moment to pause and think about it. And I think it's something that maybe is still important to us, but there's no rushâ€¦ it'll happen when it happens."

JLo shares 12-year-old twins, Maximilian "Max" David and Emme Maribel, with her ex-husband Marc Anthony - the former pair parted ways in 2014 after 10 years of marriage.

As for Alex, he is a father to two daughters, 16-year-old Natasha Alexander, and Ella Alexander, 12, from a previous marriage to Cynthia Scurtis.
