Actress Jane Seymour proved she still could turn heads, when she was pictured enjoying the beach in Oahu, Hawaii on Tuesday, wearing an incredible blue plunging swimsuit which had a high-leg detail.

She looked picture perfect as she ran down the beach with her beloved grandchildren, Luna and Wills, who belong to her daughter Katherine Flynn, 39.

The Golden Globe-winning actress, who turned 70 last month looked fantastic in the number as she walked along the shoreline carrying a floral wrap.

Jane had her grandchildren Luna and Willa with her - they are the children of her daughter Katherine Flynn

Seymour was surrounded by loved ones on the beach, including her son Kristopher as they all giggled and cuddled up to one another, with eldest daughter Katherine on the far right
