Madonna squeezed into a tiny, barely-there bra and stockings as she posed up a storm in sexy Instagram selfies.

The 62-year-old star looked sensational as she showed off her trim figure in the raunchy get-up.

Madonna put on an eye-popping display in the barely-there bra

The singing icon proudly flaunted her cleavage in a bra that barely concealed her nipples - with cross-ribbon detailing making up most of the lingerie.

She completed the look with black knickers, thigh-high stockings, and an attention-grabbing flat-cap.

The first and last photos in the selection of snaps showed the star sitting on a chair with her legs apart.

She floored fans with the sexy get-up

The star lay on a bed for one sultry snap

She is leaning forward in the first pic, putting her impressive bust front and centre.

The middle snap is a sultry black and white one, with Madonna seductively laying on a bed and gazing up at the camera.

Followers were blown away by the eye-popping display, with one commenting: "You've still got it, girl!", another added: "YOU'RE SO HOT!"

Madonna's fans said she's 'still got it' as they fawned over the images
