A young chimp and a baby bear paws their busy day to share a cuddle.

Curious Can welcomed the month-old cub called Boncuk to his new home at Turkey's Gaziantep Zoo.

He had been found in Istanbul after being imported illegally.

Other rescued street animals brought to the zoo this month include ten parrots, 38 snakes, ten flamingos, 40 peacocks, 28 pheasants, 15 reptiles, two iguanas and 15 ducks.

However they get on, it looks like Can and Boncuk are furever friends.
