Adline Castelino is 3rd runner-up at Miss Universe 2020: It is great to see India shine, says Celina Jaitly

Miss India Adline Castelino Proudly Waves National Flag At Mumbai Airport As She Returns Back After Winning 3rd Runner-Up At Miss Universe Competition

Adline Castelino is back in India after securing fourth place at the Miss Universe 2020 competition in Florida. The Miss Diva 2020 winner was snapped at the Mumbai airport on Tuesday evening, donning a stylish look and waving the Indian National flag. Back from representing India at the international beauty pageant, she proudly posed for the shutterbugs here. Adline became the third runner up after competing with 74 beautiful women around the world.

At the airport, the Miss Universe India sported a dark-hued shimmery pantsuit with a deep V-neckline. She covered her face with a black mask and completed her look with black pointed pumps. Pictures and videos of Adline waving the Tricolour at the airport last night have gone viral.
