Lauren Goodger is having sex â€œall the timeâ€• with her hunky boyfriend, eating curries and bouncing on her birthing ball to help bring on her baby girl.

The 34-year-old reality star - who has posed naked to show off her burgeoning bump at 39-weeks pregnant in our exclusive photos - admits her partner Charles Drury, 24, canâ€™t keep his hands off her curves.

And itâ€™s just as well because the full-term beauty is desperate to give birth ahead of her due date next week as sheâ€™s now covered in an â€œitchy and soreâ€• rash all over her body.

â€œBefore I was quite calm and now Iâ€™m like, right we need to do everything we can to get this labour coming on, Iâ€™ve got a ball, we need to have sex,â€• she exclusively tells The Sun.

â€œIn the sperm thereâ€™s a hormone that relaxes your cervix so I need that.â€•

Lauren and Charlie enjoyed a whirlwind romance and went public with their relationship in October last year.

â€œWe have sex all the time anyway,â€• she laughs.

â€œOf course we do, weâ€™re very affectionate, heâ€™s very loving.â€•

And thereâ€™s no chance of their love turning stale as the surprise pregnancy has brought them â€œa lot closer very quicklyâ€•.

â€œItâ€™s definitely brought us stronger together and we feel like a family,â€• the mum-to-be says.

â€œIâ€™m tired, I'm being sick, itâ€™s not the most attractive thing at all times but it makes you really close, Iâ€™m very very close with him,â€• she says.

â€œIâ€™m always naked, my boobs have dropped, Iâ€™m very comfortable, thereâ€™s not nothing he hasnâ€™t seen.

â€œAnd obviously when we first got together I was all brown and skinny with big boobs and now Iâ€™m pregnant but he still loves me and I really feel that and he canâ€™t wait for this baby.â€•

Lauren says sheâ€™s â€œvery contentâ€• for the first time in her life and loves having a â€œsupportive partnerâ€• as she prepares to become a mum for the first time.

The expectant star has been incredibly healthy throughout her pregnancy and is even considered a low enough risk to have the water birth of her dreams at home in Essex.

PREGNANCY STRUGGLES

But she admits her pregnancy rash has â€œtestedâ€• her in the last few weeks after Laurenâ€™s midwife confirmed the breakout is just down to hormones and will clear up naturally after sheâ€™s given birth.

â€œIt is absolutely horrendous,â€• she says.

â€œI am literally awake until the sun comes up scratching my skin to pieces.â€•

And looking at our exclusive pictures, Lauren is grateful she captured her body looking so â€œrawâ€• and â€œcurvyâ€• as she nears the end of her pregnancy.

â€œIâ€™m very proud of my bump,â€• she says.

â€œItâ€™s very tight, it has been from day one, Iâ€™ve still got the lines either side so you can actually see where the baby is.â€•

Lauren admits: â€œIâ€™m not a skinny girl but I donâ€™t hold fat on my belly, Iâ€™ve always had quite a flat stomach, so my bump is tight and my face hasnâ€™t changed.

â€œItâ€™s different when youâ€™re pregnant and youâ€™re quite proud of it in a way, itâ€™s like youâ€™re comfortable in your own skin because this beautiful thing is growing inside you.

â€œItâ€™s the most amazing thing that the body does, Iâ€™m already expressing, my body is doing everything it should be doing so yeah I feel lovely pregnant to be honest.â€•
