Camila Mendes puts her incredible body front and center in a floral thong bikini while on the set of

01/08/2021 19:14 by admin

Camila Mendes brought the heat to South Beach as she filmed her new Netflix movies Strangers on Friday afternoon.

The 27-year-old Riverdale star looked sensational in a floral thong bikini while on set for the day with with co-stars including Rish Shah and other lead Maya Hawke who was glimpsed briefly.

The brunette beauty showed off a pristine tan and her enviable figure as she shot beach scenes in the skimpy two piece.

Â Â

Bikini babe: Camila Mendes, 27, was glimpsed filming her upcoming Netflix movie Strangers in a blue thong bikini in South Beach on Friday

Camila was seen amidst the large scale production in her finest beach attire which hugged her gym-honed frame in all the right places.

She initially was seen with a clear face covering and a colorful sarong skirt before she stripped down to her bikini.

The Virginia born stunner looked flawless as she traversed the sand amongst a sea of extras before prepping for her scenes.

Mendes' hair was styled up in a high ponytail with wind swept tendrils by her face and her barely-there outfit was accessorized with statement heart earrings.

On set: The Riverdale star was seen walking with her mic pack in hand ahead of the scene

Busy day: In addition to the full scale production throngs of beachgoers could be seen in the background

Â Â

Smiling big: She filmed scenes with Rish Shah who sported blue hair and clutched a surfboard

Action! Her body was expertly framed by cameras

Her mic pack was in her hand as she strolled from her trailer to the set and she looked to be having a ball out of scene as she grinned big.

After getting situated she was seen filming scenes with Shah (Ms. Marvel) who donned blue hair and held a surfboard.

At one point she took a breather as she sat on an apple box before gearing up for what looked to be a long shoot day.

As if the commotion of shooting a movie was not enough, the shoreline looked to be packed with beachgoers.

Breather: She was pictured taking a moment on an apple box and waving animatedly

Sweet smile: Mendes looked radiant while flashing a sweet smile

Surfer boy: The Ms. Marvel actor was seen walking off with a surfboard in hand

Briefly glimpsed on set was co-star Maya Hawke â€" Ethan Hawke's daughter of Stranger Things fame â€" who was tapped to play the other lead. Â

And in June Deadline reported that Sophie Turner had joined the cast as well, though no details of her character have been revealed other than it supposedly being a smaller role. Â

The film has been described as a 'Hitchock-ian dark comedy' about two teenage girls who team up to fight each other's bullies.

The project is being directed by Jennifer Kaytin Robinson who made her directorial debut with the movie Someone Great for the streaming service.

Leading lady: The film follows two teenage girls played by Hawke and Mendes who take on each other's bullies

Bronzed: The Virginia born beauty looked expertly bronzed and exposed her abs

Â Â
Cheeky: During a reset she flashed her pert backside while walking away for a minute

Speaking about the role in an April interview with PureWow Camila said it was very different from Riverdale but she was 'super excited' for the project.Â Â Â

'I have one project that I'm super excited for called Strangers, which is being directed by Jennifer Kaytin Robinson, whose become a very close friend of mine already, I'm really excited to get to work on that.'

Other actors participating in the project include Austin Abrams (Dash & Lily), Alisha Boe (13 Reasons Why), Talia Ryder (Never Rarely Sometimes Always) , Paris Berelc (Alexa & Katie), Jonathan Daviss (Outer Banks), Maia Reficco (Kally's Mashup) and Ava Capri (Love Victor).

Flawless: From the side every inch of her toned body was visible

- DM