The stunner led the parade of celebs at the star-studded premiere which took place at the iconic Shrine Auditorium.

The Western film is centered around an outlaw who discovers his enemy is being released from prison so he reunites his gang to seek revenge.

Draya showcased her cleavage in a black mini dress which featured white polka dots all over it which matched her large hoop earrings.

Her curly brunette tresses were worn down as she accentuated her natural looks with complementary make-up on her face.

She teamed the short garment with a pair of black stilettos with crystals all over it.

Music mogul Jay-Z, who also served as a producer on The Harder They Fall, hit the red carpet in a stylish, tie-less tuxedo.

While his wife Beyonce wasn't at the premiere, he was joined by his in-laws, Beyonce's parents Richard Lawson and Tina Knowles.

Jay-Z had previously produced the 2014 adaptation of Annie and he executive produced Darkest Before Dawn.

The Harder They Fall follows Nat Love (Jonathan Majors), who assembles his old gang to seek revenge on those who murdered his parents.

The cast also includes Idris Elba, Zazie Beets, Delroy Lindo, Lakeith Stanfield, RJ Cyler, Danielle Deadwyler, Edi Gathegi, Deon Cole and Damon Wayans Jr.

The film will hit theaters on October 22 before debuting on the Netflix streaming service starting November 3.
