Udaipur, Rajasthan, India: An elderly man was arrested for allegedly raping a 48-year-old widow in the Bhupalpur area of Udaipur, Rajasthan.

The accused, who worked as a contractor, is the father-in-law of the victimâ€™s daughter.

The incident took place when the accused and his son visited the victimâ€™s house near the Dalal petrol pump in Udaipur. At night, when everyone else in the house was asleep, the accused knocked on the widowâ€™s door complaining about a stomach ache and entered her room.

He then allegedly raped her and clicked her obscene photos.

Later, he started threatening her to send the photos to her relatives and upload them on social media if she did not pay him Rs 10 lakh.

The woman, along with her son, went to the Bhupalpura police station to file a complaint. The police initiated an investigation and arrested the accused.

His mobile phone was also seized, which had the images that the accused clicked and was threatening her with.
