

Mangaluru: Transport businessman Arun Ronald D'Souza goes missing

16/11/2019 18:55 by admin

Mangaluru: A missing person case has been filed in the Mangaluru Rural police station saying that Arun Ronald D'Souza (36), a resident of Adyar on the outskirts of the city and a transport businessman has gone missing.

As per the details of the complaint filed by Arun's wife, he had gone to work on the morning of November 13. When Arun's wife called him at around 2.30 pm, he said that he was busy and disconnected the call. When his wife tried calling him at around 7.30 pm, the phone had gone on switched off mode.

If anyone finds Arun or has information about his whereabouts, they are requested to contact the Mangaluru Rural police station.

- DW